

Thomas G. Scullen Leadership Award

Presented by Appleton Education Foundation, Inc.

Nomination Information

The Appleton Education Foundation is asking community members to nominate a Fox Cities resident who is considered a leader in the field of education to receive the Thomas G. Scullen Leadership Award.

Dr. Thomas Scullen, former superintendent of the Appleton Area School District, died of cancer in May, 2007, at age 68. He was one of Appleton Education Foundation's founders. The award is intended to honor his memory and commitment to educational excellence in the Appleton Area School District and the Fox Cities community.

Anyone wishing to nominate an individual for this award may fill out the form below and send it by the August 24, 2017, deadline to the Appleton Education Foundation, 122 E. College Ave, Suite 1-B, Appleton, WI 54911, or send to JKrause@cffoxvalley.org.

Nominees will be evaluated on the basis of the following criteria:

- Strong history of sustained commitment to improving education in the Fox Cities
- Demonstrated ability to collaborate with other individuals and organizations to enhance education in the region
- Demonstrated ability to be an advocate for education as a measure of overall quality of life in the region
- Demonstrated ability to think creatively to enhance education in the region.

A committee of Appleton Education Foundation board members, an Appleton Area School District Board of Education member, a district staff member, a Scullen Family representative, and two community representatives will review nominations and select the winner in September. The recipient will be recognized at an Appleton Education Foundation event on Wednesday, October 18.

The honoree will receive a $1,000 monetary award to further a leadership endeavor/project or to direct to his or her nonprofit of choice.

For more information about nominating someone for this award, call AEF Executive Director Julie Krause at (920) 832-1517 x1 or visit www.appletoneducationfoundation.org.

Thomas G. Scullen Leadership Award

Presented by the Appleton Education Foundation, Inc.

Nomination Form

Do you know someone who has demonstrated a commitment to improving the quality of education in the Fox Valley Region? Then nominate him or her for the Thomas G. Scullen Leadership Award.

The nomination deadline is Friday, August 25, 2017. The winner will be selected in September. If your nominee is selected as a winner, you will be notified by phone.

The award recipient will be recognized at an Appleton Education Foundation event on October 18.

Nominees must reside in the Fox Cities, generally referred to as Outagamie, Calumet, Waupaca or Northern Winnebago counties.

Nominator Information

Name of Nominator:

Address:

City:

State: Wisconsin

Zip:

Phone Number (Daytime and Evening):

E-mail Address:

Nominee Information

Name of Nominee:

(include address and phone number)

Please provide a description of your nominee's efforts to enhance education in the region and explain why he/she deserves the award, addressing each of the award criteria (maximum 1,000 words).

References – Provide up to two references who may be contacted for more information. Please do not send reference letters.

Name:

Address:

Phone Number:

Name:

Address:

Phone Number:

Send your nomination by the August 25, 2017, deadline to Appleton Education Foundation,
122 E. College Ave., Suite 1-B, Appleton, WI 54911, or JKrause@cffoxvalley.org.