

Joe Perez Memorial Scholarship

About the Scholarship:

This scholarship honors the significant positive impact Coach Joe Perez had on the lives of student athletes at Appleton East High School during his 50-year coaching career. Coach Perez served as East's cross country coach starting in 1967 when the school opened. He guided his teams to 17 conference championships, one state team championship, and one state individual championship. More importantly, his lessons of teamwork, discipline, friendship, and respect helped runners compete in races and helped them achieve success in life.

Amount of Award:

Two $1,000 nonrenewable scholarships. One for a male student and one for a female student.
